Xmas Presents.

It is very seldom, that the Honolulu stores have offered so large a variety of Xmas goods as found today. Our substantial citizens, however, who are not looking for toys or trifles will do well in calling at the Hawaiian Carriage Manufacturing Company and there select a buggy or a phaeton for the old lady, or a surry in case, that the family grows. Manager Dillingham gives good work at cheap prices.

The Pantheon Saloon is the depot for the celebrated Enterprize Beer, where it can always be found cool and fresh on tap. We do not deal in "Fredericksburg Beer" as the morning Paper—through some mistake has advertised. Call at the Pantheon for re-freshing drink.

JIM DODD, Proprietor.

The Honolulu Clock Depot, BROWN & KUBEY, No 4 Masonic Temple, Alakea Street, Clocks and Watches of all kinds kept in stock and sold for cash or weekly and monthly payments. P. O. Box 441.

D. W. McNichol of the Empire Saloon has made a new deal which will touch the hearts, or at least the palates of many a thirsty wanderer. He keeps "half-and-half" on draught and serves a most delicious and cool beverage, far superior to "plain" beer.

LOCAL NOTES.

The Waikiki bathing resorts were well patronized yesterday.

Miss Maria Cummins will leave for Kauai tomorrow, there to become the wife of a King.

Band Concert at Emma Square tonight. A good programme has been arranged.

Ed. Hitchcock, a son of the marshal is acting as clerk to his father.

All taxes remaining unpaid on the 15 inst. will be increased with ten per. cent.

The extensive alterations in the Marshal's office are nearly completed.

The Claudine leaves to-morrow. Mr. Kibbling will make his last trip on that boat, he having been transferred to the Kinan.

Mr. Rudolph Spreckels arrived in town from Maui yesterday, and will shortly leave for San Francisco.

Mr. J. A. Cummins will entertain Mr. R. Spreckels, the Nolan party and other friends at dinner this evening.

Reports from the other islands show that great damage has been done by the heavy rain storms which lately have raged.

Chief Crowley and family is enjoying the well-known hospitality of their many Honolulu friends and taking in the sights.

The volcano is reported very active at present and it is a good occasion to take a trip to Pele's regions.

The Rev. Garwin talked back at the Rev. Sereno Bishop last night at the tent. There was a large audience.

There was a meeting of the stockholders in the Hawaiian Sugar Co. this morning at the office of W. G. Irwin & Co.

The concert for the lepers takes place tomorrow at Kaumakapili Church. A large audience will be there and enjoy the excellent programme.

The steamer Sivius has left San Francisco for Kahului. The steamer will probably run regular between the two ports.

Mr. A. P. Peterson who is in Lahaina did not return yesterday as expected. The Plemmer Arson case in which he will appear had not been called yet.

The Leilani took down the handsome decorations used at their ball yesterday at the Independence Park and 'fixed' up the hall. Over $150 will be netted from the dance.

Frank Godfrey who is possessed of a great local knowledge and energy has opened a general business agency on Kaahumanu street at the offices of A. P. Peterson.

Admiral Cook has gone on an overland trip. He left by the train this afternoon for Ewa, and will make his usual excursion on foot to Waianae and Waialua. What's up.

L. B. Kerr, Queen Street, has received the first consignment of the Pearl Sewing Machine with all the latest fixtures. Prices are such that they are within the reach of all. Drop in and see them.

Interpreter Wilcox returned to town yesterday after attending the Maui Circuit Court. Judge Kalua pressed him to stay but Mr. Wilcox declined the invitation. The native criminal cases were all finished.

Arrangements have been made by Thomas Cook & Sons for excursions to Hawaii next year. The first party will leave San Francisco on January 19th, and in February and April two other excursions will start. The tourists will stay at the Hawaiian Hotel, and will visit Hilo and other points of interest.

EXCITING EVENTS

A Number of Political Arrests.

There was considerable excitement last Saturday night, when it was learned, that John E. Bush, the editor of the Ka Leo, J. Nawahi, a well-known native lawyer, and for many years a member of the Legislature, E. C. Crick assistant editor of the Ka Leo, and an Englishman by birth, and Fred. Wied, a young Hawaiian clerk had been arrested on a charge of conspiracy. About the same time E. Klemme was arrested for having unlawfully, a rifle in his possession, and yesterday J. L. Osmer, was pulled in on a similar charge. Klemme is a German, and works as bar-keeper for Seeley Shaw. He has never been known to take an active part in politics. Osmer was until recently turn-key in the Station House, and was dismissed. The four men charged with conspiracy were held without bail and even their Counsel Mr. C. W. Ashford was refused admission to their cells. The rifles of Klemme and Osmer were confiscated and there ends their punishment. The house of the "roaring" Bibikane was searched, but no arms were found, and no arrest made.

The accused men were remanded in the police court this morning till next Monday at the request of the prosecution. Captain R. P. Waipa is the officer who has unearthed the alleged conspiracy and made the arrests. Seven rifles were found on the premises of Mr. Bush where he and Crick were preparing their paper. Nawahi was arrested at the station house where he called to see Bush and Fred. Wied was arrested at the ice cream parlor on Hotel Street. The attorney of Mr. Crick will probably communicate with the British commissioner today in regard to the refusal of the authorities to grant him admission to his client. A very large number of natives were present in the court room this morning but no demonstration took place. The town was of course full of the wildest rumors and number of other arrests and raids were predicted.

Another Seizure.

Four rifles and two hundred rounds of ammunition were seized by Captain Parker at Crick's residence on Liliha street this afternoon.

An Accident.

James McInerney was thrown from his horse at Waikiki yesterday, and was unfortunately enough to break his right leg. His horse was frightened by a couple of dogs in front of Mr. Davis' residence. Mr. McInerney was carried into the house and Dr. Herbert was sent for, and the leg reset.

Another Large Plantation

The joining together of the Wailuku, Waikapu and Waihee plantations create another large plantation on Maui. Messrs. Brewer & Co., a short while ago purchased Waikapu from Mr. Cornwell and the proprietors of Waihee have disposed of their property. The purchase sum of Waihee is said to be $325,000. There is a debt of $75,000 on the property, which was mainly owned by the Makee family and of which Castle & Cooke were agents.

Dr. R. McKibbin.

LADIES' COLUMN.

Those magic words, "Just Right," express the present condition of our Stock and Prices.

We hit the key note of success when we launched out to do business on the Quick Sales and Small Profit basis; goods sell faster and we are enabled to keep our stock full of the very latest of everything to be had; the days of shop worn goods are over with us; its new styles and patterns; new life in business, which to you means New York, London Paris goods at but a slight advance over New York, London and Paris prices. As a practical illustration, we are selling this week, MAD-RAS CURTAINS for $4 a pair. We have been guilty of selling the very same CURTAINS for $7 a pair simply because we formerly charged ruling Honolulu Prices. Does not the mention of a cut like this one convince you that Quick Sales and Small Profits is not delusion or snare? If it don't, the CURTAINS will when you look at them. The designs are beautiful, colors are beautiful. GLOVES are another thing we want to call your attention to this week. CHAMOIS GLOVES white undressed kid gloves in eight, sixteen, and twenty button lengths size are complete. If you do suggest taking a look at ours, the GLOVES are Just Right, the Prices are Just Right.

C. E. HIRES, PHILADELPHIA

Morning, Noon, Night - - -

Good all the time. It removes the languor of morning, sustains the energies at noon, lifts the weariness of night—HIRES ROOT BEER—delicious, sparkling, appetizing. Good as luxury, good as a tonic.

It is beyond all dispute a wonderful health-giving drink, and it is very easy for any one to understand why this is so. The root, herbs, bark and berries, from which HIRES ROOT BEER is skillfully made, are the identical things from which physicians get their most helpful remedies. For instance: Do you believe that sarsaparilla is a valuable remedy? Well HIRES ROOT BEER contains more sarsaparilla than many sarsaparillas. The same is true as to other ingredients.

It is doing more to advance practical temperance than many people realize. It is used and recommended by the most cautious and conservative temperance people. The most scrupulous abstainer can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER himself, and recommend it to others as an agreeable and healthful substitute for the strong drink which he opposes.

It is a home-made and homelike beverage. It is very easily prepared, and if the plain directions are followed, it will always be good. Every member of the family, from the baby to the grandfather, can enjoy HIRES ROOT BEER, and every one of them will have better health for each swallow they take. It improves the appetite, purifies the blood, and tones the whole system. Children especially delight in HIRES ROOT BEER. Its preparation loosens them, and its use does them good. In thousands of homes, "HIRES ROOT BEER" the mother made, will be among the happiest recollections of childhood.

BEWARE: Do not confound it with other Rootbeer preparations, as it is entirely unlike anything else of the kind. Beware of extracts advertised for making Rootbeer, as they are composed chiefly of coloring matter and oils to give them flavor, which excite the nerves and cause nausea.

HIRES Improved Rootbeer packages makes really the most harmless of our fashionable drinks, yet nourishing and strengthening the blood. It cleanses the system of the poisons humors that develop in kidney and urinary diseases, and in fact, in any case that arises from an impure state of the blood.

HIRES Improved Rootbeer is offered to the public with full confidence of its merits. It contains no poisonous or injurious properties whatever, and all infants may take it with perfect safety.
